Re: United States v. Anthony Smalls, et al., 23 Cr. 237 (JLR)

Dear Judge Rochon:

The Government writes, with the consent of all defendants, to ask the Court to modify the current schedule for making certain pretrial filings in this case.¹ Trial is scheduled to begin in this case on April 15, 2024, and the final pretrial conference is scheduled for April 8, 2024. The parties are still engaging in discussions about plea resolutions in this case and are hopeful that pretrial resolutions can be reached. To facilitate continued plea discussions, the parties propose the following modified schedule for pretrial filings, which would not change the trial date or final pretrial conference date.

- March 4, 2024: The Government shall file any motions in limine, any Rule 404(b) notices, and its exhibit list and witness list. In addition, the parties shall jointly file their proposed voir dire, requests to charge, and verdict form in accordance with the Court's Individual Rules.
- March 11, 2024: Defendants shall file responses to the Government's motion(s) and their own motions in limine, if any. In addition, to the extent that Defendants intend to put on their own case-in-chief, they shall also file their exhibits lists and witness lists at this time.
- March 18, 2024: The Government shall file a response to Defendants' motion(s) in limine, if any.

¹ The Court's initial deadline for the Government to make certain pretrial filings was today. I apologize for the late adjournment request.

Thank you for considering the request.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
